Experience and Expertise

Mark Hebblewhite is an Analyst in Forsythes Forensic Accounting Division, having joined the firm in August 2008. Mark has 4 years experience in Chartered Accounting, dealing with both business services and audit clients.

Mark's background in Chartered Accounting and advising small to medium businesses and individuals gives him an excellent foundation for the analysis of the financial and taxation matters that may arise when businesses, other assets and superannuation are valued for the purposes of Family Law and Commercial proceedings.

Mark is undertaking valuation assignments involving both business and superannuation interests, and also the forensic investigation of financial transactions for a variety of litigation matters.
